20 "My prayer is not for them alone. I pray also for those who will believe in me through their message, 21 that all of them may be one, Father, just as you are in me and I am in you. May they also be in us so that the world may believe that you have sent me. 22 I have given them the glory that you gave me, that they may be one as we are one— 23 I in them and you in me—so that they may be brought to complete unity. Then the world will know that you sent me and have loved them even as you have loved me.

- John 17:20-23 (N.I.V.)

During the month of April the three congregations of the Bonfield United Methodist Churches will be collecting noisy change for Vacation Bible School. This is a tradition that goes back many years. The members and friends of the three churches collect these funds to help offset the cost of sponsoring VBS. Well that is part of the reason they throw a handful of change into a metal bucket. The other and more important reason is they love your children.

Jesus instructs us that we do not need to know the whole world to love the whole world. We love because we were loved first. So we love the whole world, which includes you and your kids. There is a small group of committed individuals who plan every detail of the week-long adventure. Long before they toss away their coins and begin making plans for the new year of VBS, they pray. They pray for your children's participation in VBS.

I join them in their prayers. Together we are praying for kids, many of who we have never met. VBS takes a lot of planning and organization, love requires neither. The love God speaks about is free, it does not require paperwork or meetings; it just is what it is. We make ourselves available for prayer at different times and places. Sometimes praying alone, other times praying as part of a group. Make no mistake, we do pray for the people of Bonfield, we pray for the faith of those we worship with and witness to. All because we were loved first.

Some use God in their expressions to hurt, minimize, hate or marginalize other people. That has nothing to do with what I preach here in this parish. The God we worship and pray to is a God of unconditional, free love. The same God who loves us, loves your children. When I invite you to take part in VBS, I am not inviting you to join 'Our' club, it's not mine or ours, it's your club. You were invited the same as we were.

I am simply reminding you of something God has already offered to everyone. You are welcome, not to have a nice week of games, snacks and crafts - you are welcome to take your rightful place and have a wonderful life of grace, love and hope. I don't know of many video games or phone apps that make the same offer. Eternal salvation is too important to be left to chance. Sometimes God even uses old curmudgeons like me to send out a reminder.

I once believed I was not worthy to receive any blessings from God. For some reason I blamed the Christians who did believe. I think perhaps I was jealous of what they had. It took me years to finally accept the idea that I deserved God's blessings as much as anyone. Actually none if us deserve any blessings from God. We receive them because God loves us and wants us to have them. I needed to rethink my understanding of God to know that I was as worthy as anyone else.

That reminder again - you are loved, you are worthy of God's grace and you are invited to take your place alongside other Christians who pray, worship and work hard to be a benefit to their community. There is a place for you here. There is a place for your children at VBS. Not as participants in someone else's club, but your very own.

Evan UMW Report

The Bonfield Evangelical United Methodist Women (UMW) met on March 1 in the church's upper room with 9 members present having made about 80 sick calls since last reported in November.

Dayle Seitz gave the 2018 call to prayer and Self Denial lesson on "Learning for a Lifetime: Developing Leaders". The special offering for this will be collected at the Apr. 5 meeting as Ester Marcotte's home. These gifts are committed to equip girls and young women to be leaders in the community and church. We need to open our eyes to gender inequality and gender in justice. We must be ready to risk our own comfort to change this injustice.

Last fall the Evangelical UMW sent 49 baby quilts to Lessie Bates Neighborhood House. Esther Marcotte made and sent 12 lap quilts to the veterans at Manteno VA hospital. Seitz reported that she took 290 items to the Gift of God Street Church that have been donated so far. This mission will continue. The need of the homeless is great. Please bring items as mentioned in the bulletin and place in the box in the North entry of the church. The need is for all kinds of hygiene items, paper products, etc.

The Sunshine Circle has invited the Evangelical UMW to the Apr. 11 meeting at 6:30 pm to plan for the upcoming garage sale and food sale.

Joyce Riegel gave a lesson out of the Response Magazine, Mission Giving Makes Mission Happen. With our service we are pulling people out of the proverbial river. Maybe we need to go up river and figure out why they are in the river in the first place. UMW giving makes mission happen! Don't give up now.

Christine Meyer passed out addresses of some of our current missionaries. The ladies hope to contact them and learn more about the mission of our United Methodist Church.

Upcoming dates were announced, they are: Mar. 22, Vermillion District Personal Growth Retreat at Lexington. April 14-14 Festival of Quilts in Urbana, IL. April 19 Vermillion District Spring Meeting.

The Evangelical UMW are asked to bring hand soap pumps for Cunningham, box tops and Wal-Mart gift cards.

Lessie Bates is asking for shampoo and deodorant as well as gift cards. Please help the UMW by bringing these items and placing them in the rear of the sanctuary by April 15.

A light lunch followed provided by Pat Bland and Seitz.

Visitation Team Meeting

This group extends Christ's love to those who are home-bound, in nursing homes, assisted living centers and hospitals. We also make phone calls and send cards to anyone who may be in need. Pastor Mel will provide you with training if you are new to visiting ministry.

Please consider coming to this meeting to find out more and to ask questions, or call Pastor Mel 815-922-9161. This is a very important ministry of the local church and the pastor is in need of new people to assist in making sure all people on the visitation list are seen and heard.

Great Ingathering 2018

God's Blessings! The Dwight United Methodist Men are preparing for the Great Ingathering scheduled for Apr. 15, noon - 1 at the Dwight United Methodist Church. In case you're not familiar with this mission project, the churches in our district and surrounding area have an opportunity to donate goods to be delivered to the United Methodist Mountain Mission in Kentucky. Over the past year we filled up 4 trucks with donations. This year we hope to do just as well.

Let's all take advantage of this project to clean out closets of clothes that we no longer need. Make sure you pack the donations into boxes not bags. Boxed items pack much better in the large trucks. Good furniture is wanted. Good and wearable clothes and shoes are needed. All appliances must be in working condition. OLD TV's or OLD COMPUTER MONITORS ARE NOT WANTED!

The key to a successful Great Ingathering is publicity. Please get the word out to your friends and neighbors. There will be a lunch available at the church this year from 11 am to 1 pm.

If you would like more information please contact the Dwight United Methodist Church at (815) 584-3420.

Phoenix

According to ancient legend, the phoenix lived for 500 to 1,400 years (depending on the version of the myth), at which time it would set its nest ablaze and be consumed in the flames. After three days the bird would be reborn and was said to repeat this cycle, "rising from the ashes" again and again. Early Christians saw in the phoenix a symbol of Jesus' resurrection and of eternal life.

Quotes Of The Month

"The resurrection ... was only the beginning of a great, grand and vast outreach that has never ended and will not end until our Lord Jesus Christ comes back again."

—A.W. Tozer

"Easter is the soul's first taste of spring."

—Richelle Goodrich

"Nothing is so strong as gentleness, and nothing is so gentle as true strength."

Commission On A Way Forward Prepares Updated Report To Bishops

DALLAS - The Commission on a Way Forward is nearing the completion of its task of making recommendations of possible ways forward for The United Methodist Church regarding the inclusion of LGBTQ persons in this global denomination.

The 32-member Commission concluded its three-day meeting in Dallas, Texas, on Saturday after reworking sketches of possible models of the future of the denomination that will be part of the final report to the Council of Bishops in May.

Bishop Sandra Steiner Ball, one of the moderators of the Commission, noted that the members who have had six meetings since January last year, are confident that the Commission will succeed in its work.

“The common work of God’s spirit moves in each one of our lives. The spiritual gifts that are gifted to each of us by God are given to be used for the common good of all people. It is this Spirit that both unifies us and inspires us to use the diversity of spiritual gifts to be visionaries and to consider the whole realm of what is possible; to dream dreams, big dreams, to the glory of God.”

She said the Commission, in the unity of God’s Spirit, continues to take a fresh look at the church and what is possible.

“We seek a way forward for The United Methodist Church that strengthens and expands Christ’s mission in ways that value and enable the Church to reach more people in different contexts around the world and to minister with faithfulness, humility, creativity, and generosity,” said Bishop Steiner Ball.

Council of Bishops President Bishop Bruce Ough and Area Resident Bishop Michael McKee both addressed the members on Thursday, the first day of the meeting.

“Time is running short and we need to focus. Simple is better than complex. Reasonable detail is better than ambiguity. Fewer disciplinary changes is better than more. Honor the parameters and values of the Mission, Vision and Scope document - unity, contextualization and enhanced mission,” said Bishop Ough.

Bishop Ough also asked the Commission to provide the Council with a draft theological statement that both informs the structural models and creates a compelling narrative for the models.

Each day of the three-day meeting began with devotions that were led by the moderators, Bishop Steiner Ball, Bishop Ken Carter and Bishop David Yemba, using the 1 Corinthians 12 scripture on the importance of being one body of Christ despite the differences.

In reviewing the feedback from the Council of Bishops, the Commission worked on incorporating the UMC theological foundation in proposed models for the future of the UMC.

“We understand that a way forward must go deeper than structural change and legislative revision. A way forward for the church draws upon the deep consensus of all that we believe and teach, especially about the grace of God which leads to mission and holiness,” said Bishop Carter as he reflected on the theological work.

“At the same time, we approach this theological work with a ‘convicted humility’—we are grounded in important convictions, and yet we ‘see through a glass darkly,’ in Paul’s words, and so we hold these convictions with humility before God and each other,” he added.

The Commission members also discussed the importance of maintaining the missional focus of the UMC in any future structural changes.

“As the commission continues its efforts to dream anew, it also continues to work to paint a picture of the dream for people in ways they can catch glimpses of and have hope for a wholly and holy way forward that enables the UMC to better reach new people, and more people with the good news of Jesus Christ in all parts and contexts of the world.” Bishop Steiner Ball noted.

With Central Conferences being integral parts of any way forward, the Commission spent time working on how those conferences outside of the United States would be incorporated in any possible structural models in this global denomination.

“We are a global church and every decision we make should be seen in that context,” noted Bishop Yemba as he shared a report on Central Conferences. “As the United Methodist Church continues the struggle on how to find a way forward on the burning issue of human sexuality, we need to continue using our collective wisdom as Connection in order to create space and flexibility that allow central conferences to stay and work together to fulfill our missional mandate.”

Bishop Yemba further noted that: “Many United Methodists outside of the United States would like to see the context be taken into consideration seriously. Whatever models the Council of Bishops will come up with and recommend to General Conference as a way forward, it is expected that such a recommendation will provide space to focus on what unites us and not what separates us as well as what we can say together as basic principles on human sexuality in the light of the Gospel.”

The Commission plans to share its reworked models of possible ways forward with the Council of Bishops next month at a meeting that has been called to specifically hear more from the Commission.

Festival Of Quilts Scheduled For April 13-14 At Cunningham Children’s Home

Cunningham Children’s Home will host the 14th Annual Festival of Quilts, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., at Cunningham’s Spiritual Life Center in Urbana. Cunningham’s signature fundraiser, the Festival honors the tradition of the United Methodist Women, and the quilts they have created and donated for more than 120 years for our kids. Each child at Cunningham receives a quilt of their own to wrap them in warmth, safety, and love.

The Festival includes a collection of show quilts that creatively blur the lines between conventional quilt making and fine art. Quilts of all sizes will also be available to purchase through a quilt auction and quilt boutique. Visitors may also enjoy campus tours, featured speakers, goodies from the bake sale, lunch at the café, and handcrafted items from the gift shop.

Admission to the Festival is a suggested donation of $5 per person and all proceeds will benefit children and youth served by Cunningham.
