

NEW BEGINNINGS

BONFIELD - GRAND
PRAIRIE PARISH

“Do all the good you can, by all the means you can, in all the ways you can, in all the places you can, at all the times you can, to all the people you can, as long as ever you can.” -- John Wesley

As this arrives for you, we will either be just before or just after Christmas Day. While the celebrations will be different for many of us this year keeping in your heart the reason we celebrate this time of year is to remember a mother, a father and a few shepherds in a simple stable welcoming the son of God arriving on Earth to change our lives forever.

This is the January 2021 newsletter, the first of a new year. A year that starts differently than any year we have ever been a part of. And hopefully a year that we can eventually put a global pandemic behind us. A year that will start with us not being able to have indoor worship services and having to be creative again with bringing the word of God and His love for us to everyone.

I want to thank EVERYONE who sent me a Christmas card this year. I'm humbled by those who took the time to drop me a note of well wishes. Thanks also to those who sent me a message or card thinking of me after the recent passing of my uncle. It was the toughest funeral service I've led thus far, and I am glad the Lord gave me the strength to do it.

The beginning of a new year finds some of us making resolutions that many will have broken before January is finished. For Pastors like me, it is a time to reflect on the Advent season that has just concluded and work on the final preparations for the season of Lent that will begin on February 17th with Ash Wednesday. Somewhere during that time hopefully I can take a week of vacation time to “recharge the batteries,” even if this year it might be just sitting in the parsonage doing very little.

The time between Advent and Lent, while less than two months in length, we will fast forward from the birth of the Savior to the events leading up to His trial, being placed on a cross to die and then resurrecting to the Kingdom of Heaven. Approximately 33 years of life covered, from Christmas to Easter Day. Then through the remainder of the year we learn about, or get a refresher course, on some of the teachings Jesus did during His time on Earth.

If you are reading this in Bonfield or the nearby area and you don't have a place you regularly worship at, we have three wonderful churches in this Parish you can try out. In this newsletter you can see the Worship Service times for each of the churches. No matter which church you walk inside, you will find very friendly people along with a laid-back service. No pressuring anyone, we are all here to Worship God and be reminded of the love He has for everyone.

It is my hope and wish that 2021 will be a year when we are able to get to whatever the new normal will be. More importantly I hope we are able to get back to the type of services we are used to as well as having meetings and everything else this Parish does be closer to the normal we remember. May God Bless each and every one of you throughout 2021.

Stay safe and may God Bless, Pastor Keith

 All indoor church services have been cancelled until further notice by Bishop Frank Beard. The church office will also be closed during this time. Please contact Pastor Keith at 309-830-0875 for any information needed. ***

PRAYERS FOR VICTIMS

A Word for the Year

Every January, some people pray and ask God to provide a word for their year ahead. Friends have shared theirs with me, but I was hesitant to embrace the practice myself. I'd love to receive a word like flourish; then again, I might be like the friend who heard health and then faced many physical challenges that year.

But I tried it for 2020 and heard prepare. My first reaction was that the word wasn't very exciting, which possibly confirmed I hadn't orchestrated it. Indeed, 2020 ended up full of significant, unexpected change for our family, with careers, school, church and friends. Prepare reminded me that amid chaos, God had prepared me for each moment and continues to prepare me for what's next.

Give it a try! Regardless of the word you receive or what lies ahead, you can trust that God loves you and is ultimately in control for 2021 and beyond.

—Janna Firestone

Truth + love

I refuse to accept the view that mankind is so tragically bound to the starless midnight of racism and war that the bright daybreak of peace and brotherhood can never become reality.

I believe that unarmed truth and unconditional love will have the final word.

The Magi's Story — and Ours

The story of the Magi is our story. God has used his supernatural means to draw us unto himself. ... On one glorious day, when we were exhausted and wearied in our sin, God led us to gaze upon Jesus just as the Magi did. We see the glory of God manifested through Jesus Christ in the internal work of the Holy Spirit. We see our utter sinfulness and God's abounding grace offered in the Messiah. We are filled with joy as this grace sinks into our hearts.

We fall down on our knees and confess our need of this Messiah. We worship him and offer up our lives as our greatest offering to him. Then we continue on in our lives, carrying the truth about the Messiah.

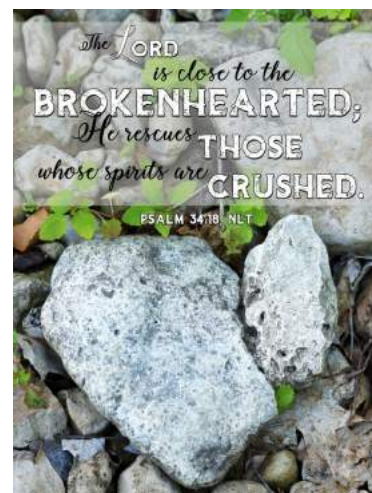

Rock of Ages

On walks, I enjoy searching for heart-shaped rocks. One day in 2020, I spotted a broken heart, which seemed fitting as illness, racism and suffering dominated the headlines. I thought of Psalm 34:18, NIV: "The Lord is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit."

Humans can be hard-hearted — pointing fingers, assuming the worst and failing to extend compassion. We often reject people who look, think or act differently from us. All these things break hearts, including God's. Only with his help can we rise above hatred, learn to listen more than we speak, and express kindness, empathy and a willingness to learn.

Jesus, be our rock as we face life's brokenness. Stay near and start the healing. Amen.

United Methodist Women of the Parish

Purpose of the United Methodist Women -The organized unit of United Methodist Women shall be a community of women whose purpose is to know God and to experience freedom as whole persons through Jesus Christ; to develop a creative, supportive fellowship; and to expand concepts of mission through participation in global ministries of the church.

Evan UMW -

It looks like we will shut in again due to COVID-19. It would be a good time to pick up a few good reads. The United Methodist women's program is up a running for 2021 with new books. Some interesting titles can be found in the Response magazine Nov/Dec 2020 issue. Like, Gum Moon: A Novel of San Francisco Chinatown. This novel is based on the truth about Chinese children in slavery. It also tells about how Methodist women rescued children from the sex trafficking. These children were sold as young as 3 years old. This book will open your eyes to the atrocities that these children faced.

Numbering our days

To fix what they call a disorganized date-tracking system, professors Steve Hanke and Dick Henry have developed a "permanent calendar." On it, January 1 is always a Monday, so holidays and birthdays occur on the same day every year. The 364-day calendar eliminates leap years, time zones, Halloween and every Friday the 13th. Instead of leap days, "every five or six years, we'll have an extra week at the end [of December] when you can party," says Henry.

Because the permanent calendar is predictable, it reportedly would save money and time. Yet despite almost two decades of work, the idea hasn't taken off.

However we track our lives, we do well to remember this prayer: "Lord, you have been our dwelling place throughout all generations. ... Teach us to number our days, that we may gain a heart of wisdom" (Psalm 90:1, 12 NIV).

Live in the Light

Often we want to be able to see into the future. We say, “How will next year be for me? Where will I be five or 10 years from now?” There are no answers to these questions. Mostly we have just enough light to see the next step — what we have to do in the coming hour or the following day.

The art of living is to enjoy what we can see and not complain about what remains in the dark. When we are able to take the next step with the trust that we will have enough light for the step that follows, we can walk through life with joy and be surprised at how far we go. Let's rejoice in the little light we carry and not ask for the great beam that would take all our shadows away.

—Henri Nouwen, Bread for the Journey

Epiphany Epiphanies

Sometimes brief words of ancient wisdom can spark an “aha!” moment — a revelation of new insight about God or faith. Here are some epiphanies for the season of Epiphany.

“If we approach with faith, we too will see Jesus ... for the Eucharistic table takes the place of the crib. Here, the Body of the Lord is present, wrapped not in swaddling clothes but in the rays of the Holy Spirit.”

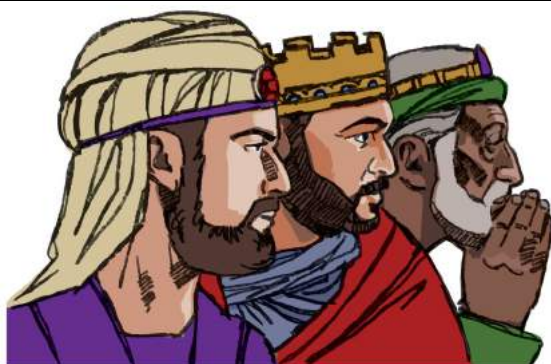

—St. John Chrysostom (347-407)

“So that we might also have the means to go, the one we were longing to go to came here from there. And what did he make? A wooden raft for us to cross the sea on. For no one can cross the sea of this world unless carried over it on the cross of Christ.”

—St. Augustine (354-430)

“You wish to see; listen. Hearing is a step toward vision.”

—St. Bernard of Clairvaux (1090-1153)

So, most glorious Lord, may we
Evermore be led to thee.

+Christian Symbol+

Cross on the Rock

The rock is often used as a symbol of the Lord, our strength and firm foundation. A cross rising from the rock echoes many Bible verses that proclaim Christ as the rock of salvation; for example,

“He alone is my rock and my salvation ...”
(Psalm 62:2, ESV).
