

“Do all the good you can, by all the means you can, in all the ways you can, in all the places you can, at all the times you can, to all the people you can, as long as ever you can.” -- John Wesley

The first month of 2021 proved to be a continuation of most of 2020. Things happening that many of us thought we would never see happen, most notably what happened inside one of the most revered buildings in this country, the US Capitol. Another example of the divide that sadly is happening in the United State of America currently. Psalm 37:37 is something I read on the day of the attack: “Consider the blameless, observe the upright; a future awaits those who seek peace.” There are other Scriptures that can be found in the Bible that can help in trying to unify this country, Google or other search engines can help with this.

February also brings to us the beginning of the Lent season and yes, this year will be different for this as well. On February 17th , Ash Wednesday, I invite anyone to come inside the north doors at Evan between 1-6 pm for self-imposition of ashes. As of this writing there will be no service covering County West that evening as has been done in previous years. I will have a station set up with sealed containers of ashes and something to read as you do this. I will also be in the office during that time making sure there are enough ashes for those who need them.

As for the remainder of the Lent season this year, at the time I write this we have nothing in place for Wednesday evening services as is typically done. This, as we come to say often these days, is always subject to change and any changes will be communicated. We are also preparing for Holy Week services and hopefully by the first of April these will happen. More information to come in the March newsletter.

It was a few short weeks ago we remembered the birth of the baby, the long-awaited Messiah, in a simple stable and we will start the journey through the days leading up to the arrest, conviction, crucifixion and resurrection of Jesus in the middle of this month. If ever there was a time when we need Jesus, this upcoming Lent season is it. May we go on this journey together and may Jesus help to unify the United States of America once again.

God Bless, Pastor Keith

Always Choose Love

God wants us to choose to love him freely, even when that choice involves pain, because we are committed to him, not to our own good feelings and rewards. He wants us to cleave to him, as Job did, even when we have every reason to deny him hotly. That, I believe, is the central message of Job.

Satan had taunted God with the accusation that humans are not truly free. Was Job being faithful simply because God had allowed him a prosperous life? Job’s fiery trials proved the answer beyond doubt. Job clung to God’s justice when he was the best example in history of God’s apparent injustice. He did not seek the Giver because of his gifts; when all gifts were removed, he still sought the Giver.

--Philip Yancey,
*Where Is God
When It Hurts?*

The Power of Love

By comparing love to everything from oxygen and fire to wind and war, songs and poetry emphasize its immense power — for good or for ill. Christian author Patrick Morley uses metaphors that focus on love’s practicality in everyday life: “Love is the glue that holds us together and the oil that keeps us from rubbing each other the wrong way.” He also calls love “the WD-40 of relationships” because it “can seep into tight places where logic, threats and even promises just can’t seem to penetrate.”

St. Augustine, who predated WD-40 by centuries, knew that love not only eases friction in personal interactions but, with God’s help, can change hearts and lives. “Love all [people], even your enemies,” he advises. “Love them, not because they are your brothers, but that they may become your brothers. Thus you will ever burn with fraternal love, both for him who is already your brother and for your enemy, that he may by loving become your brother.”

Why We Lament

In 2020, the coronavirus pandemic struck America during the middle of Lent, a season associated with deprivation. Some people made light of the shutdowns, joking, “I didn’t mean to give up this much for Lent!” Others asked why the suffering was occurring in the first place.

Professor N.T. Wright, in an essay for Time, explains that asking “why?” but receiving no answer is key to biblical lamenting. Adding to the mystery, he says, is that God also laments — grieving at the wickedness of humans, despairing over Israel’s unfaithfulness. Jesus cries at a friend’s tomb; the Holy Spirit groans in anguish.

“Part of the Christian vocation,” Wright concludes, is not being able to explain why but lamenting instead. “As the Spirit laments within us,” he says, “so we become, even in our self-isolation, small shrines where the presence and healing love of God can dwell. And out of that there can emerge new possibilities ... new hope.”

An Interlocking Community

Christ distributes courage through community; he dissipates doubts through fellowship. He never deposits all knowledge in one person but distributes pieces of the jigsaw puzzle to many. When you interlock your understanding with mine, and we share our discoveries, when we mix, mingle, confess and pray, Christ speaks.

—Max Lucado, Fearless

Valentine's Card Shower for College Students, Home Bound and Assisted Living

You know what a wonderful difference receiving just one card can make. Imagine what a "card shower"—piles of greeting cards filling someone's mailbox—could do. In these uncertain times, many of us are feeling unsettled, adjusting to new behaviors and redefining "togetherness." Sometimes that means connecting online. Sometimes that means phone calls and texts. And sometimes that means finding creative, meaningful ways to show someone how much they mean...like a card shower. Below are addresses of individuals that would love a Valentine's Day card.

Celebrating Love

For 80 years, a couple in Ecuador was an exceptional example of marital love. Julio Cesar Mora Tapia, 110, and Waldramina Maclovia Quinteros Reyes, 104, were wed on February 7, 1941. Until Julio's death last October, they were reportedly the world's oldest married couple. Their large family includes nine great-great-grandchildren!

Good News Network recounts: "Julio Cesar fell in love with Waldramina's beauty, her conversation, and her big heart." Meanwhile, she found in him "a poet with a young spirit." The couple says the formula for a lasting marriage is "love + maturity + mutual respect," as well as patience, compassion and hard work.

That calls to mind Paul's words, often read at weddings: "Love is patient and kind; love does not envy or boast; it is not arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice at wrongdoing, but rejoices with the truth" (1 Corinthians 13:4-6, ESV).

The Soul of Christianity

A Christ-centered life does not mean a life in which one sings hymns, reads Scripture and edifies his neighbors by hanging texts on the walls. One does not become a Christian by doing a good deed a day, nor by go-getting for religion, nor by engaging in economic and political reform movements, even though these things are done from the noblest of human motives. A Christian is one who, believing that Christ is the Son of God, has that Christ-life in his soul.

—Fulton Sheen

Love Bites!

Retailers eager to capture some of the $20 billion that Americans spend every year for Valentine's Day gifts are moving beyond candy and flowers. For an outside-the-box edible present for that special someone, now you can purchase a bouquet of bacon roses, pickles or even Olive Garden breadsticks. If money is tight, you can visit Waffle House or White Castle on February 14, the one night they take reservations.

Last year, a most unusual Valentine's Day promotion had no takers.

A reptile park in Mosca, Colorado, offered a two-for-one deal on gator-wrestling classes, but no one "snapped" up the opportunity. Maybe another heart-shaped box of chocolates isn't such a bad idea after all!

A Daily Prayer

Whatever happens today, dear Lord, help us remember that you are present. If we find ourselves in the shadows of disappointment or rejection or pain, let us see your comforting light. If we're in the radiant light of success or acceptance or wholeness, may we acknowledge your providence and grace. Wherever we are, grant us the assurance of your nearness. Amen.

6 THINGS TO KNOW WHEN YOU FEEL OVERWHELMED

- 1 God has a plan for you.
Jeremiah 29:11
- 2 God will make your "storm" calm.
Mark 4:35-41
- 3 When you get off course, God will straighten your direction.
Proverbs 3:5-6
- 4 Forgive, just as Christ has forgiven you.
Ephesians 4:31-32
- 5 God accepts you as his own.
Hebrews 12:6
- 6 God is ALWAYS with you!
Deuteronomy 31:6

The Fountain

A fountain, or well, symbolizes Jesus, our living water. Jesus told the Samaritan woman at the well that everyone who drinks the water he gives will never thirst again. It "will become in them a spring of water gushing up to eternal life," Jesus said (see John 4:14, NRSV).

The Parable of the Lost Ring

Only three years after Paula and Joe Walter married, her wedding ring was lost as she played catch with their son. Naturally, she was heartbroken. Over the years, whenever family and friends gathered in the back yard, she urged everyone to look for the ring — but to no avail. Because the yard borders on woods, Paula feared the ring had flown into the trees, never to be seen again.

But just before the couple's 40th anniversary, landscapers hired to do work in the yard brought her a surprise: They'd found the ring — right where Paula had been playing with her child so long ago! Like the woman in Jesus' parable who finally found her lost coin (Luke 15:8-10), Paula rejoiced. God too searches until every person who has strayed or been flung away from the faith is found.

Sometimes the place we rediscover faith is right where we've looked before. What makes the difference? A different person helping us search? Light shining in a different way? We may never know. We simply rejoice — and so does God. —Heidi Mann

If we meet and you forget me you have lost nothing. But if you meet Jesus Christ and forget Him, you have lost everything!

Bishop's Challenge for 2021

Bishop Frank J. Beard is challenging the IGRC to be intentional in the New Year by memorizing scripture. In his column, published in the December 2020 issue of The Current, Bishop Beard mentioned this challenge and several had responded wanting to know what scriptures he had in mind.

"Psalm 119 makes a strong case regarding our need to know God's word. It helps in our growth and spiritual development. We learn more about God," Bishop Beard said. "The word of God influences us and helps us in making difficult decisions. The word of God strengthens our faith and helps keep us from sin. God's word provides light for our life journey." The following is the listing of Scripture verses. The list is by no means an exhaustive one.

REFRIGERATOR VERSES for 2021

1. John 3:16 – “For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.”
2. Romans 3:23 – “for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God.”
3. Romans 6:23 – “For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.”
4. 1 John 1:9 - “if we confess our sins, he is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness.”
5. John 14:6 – “Jesus answered, “I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.”
6. Revelation 3:20 – “Here I am! I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in and eat with that person, and they with me.”
7. 2 Corinthians 5:17 - “Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come: The old has gone, the new is here!”
8. Philippians 4:13 – “I can do all this through him who gives me strength.”
9. Ephesians 2:8-9 – “For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith—and this is not from yourselves, it is the gift of God—⁹ not by works, so that no one can boast.
10. Matthew 6:33 - “But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.”
11. Hebrews 4:12 - "For the word of God is alive and active. Sharper than any double-edged sword, it penetrates even to dividing soul and spirit, joints and marrow; it judges the thoughts and attitudes of the heart."
12. Acts 4:12 “Salvation is found in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given to mankind by which we must be saved.”

Bishop's Challenge for 2021
